

Millefiore Clarkes – Vice-President, Board of Directors

Millefiore Clarkes dedicates herself to the craft and community of media arts in Prince Edward Island, Canada.

Her production company One Thousand Flowers Productions produces a variety of media work such as 'pocket-docs' for online dissemination, music videos, experimental video, web series, and feature documentaries.

She is currently producing her second feature length documentary, "The Telling". She is also directing a documentary for the National Film Board of Canada, "Feed the Soil". Her first documentary "Stalking Love" screened at festivals across Canada and the US and aired on CBC's documentary! channel. She has produced one documentary web series, "Faces and Hands", as well as a long list of music videos, short documentaries and experimental work.

Her music video "Stealin" for Catherine MacLellan recently won the 'Best Music Video Award' at the MusicPEI Awards, and WIFT-Atlantic Chapter awarded her the 'Salute Award' for her work in the sector. Her short doc "December in Toronto" was shortlisted in the Lyrical Category and screened at the 2012 Vimeo Film Festival Awards in NYC.

She has worked as an editor as well as the executive director of IMAC (2005-2008), programming a number of initiatives. She has sat on the boards of The PEI Council of the Arts and Women in Film and Television-Atlantic. She is a founding member of The Island Film Factory and on the board of IMAC. She is the curator for The Island Media Arts Festival.
