

Nathan Carter - Member at Large

"Nathan Carter is the owner and operator of Wrong Horse Productions based out of Charlottetown Prince Edward Island. Nathan grew up in Cardigan, and graduated with a BSc at University of Prince Edward Island in 2017.

With extensive experience working with youth through The Adventure Group, Nathan has spent his professional career working with multiple levels of Government to further the education opportunities for Youth in Prince Edward Island.

Through his partnerships with private and corporate business, Nathan can provide a unique perspective on the commercial film making landscape for young entrepreneurs in PEI."