

Shannon Farrell - Member At Large

Shannon is a partner in Charlottetown firm Key Murray Law with a focus in the areas of family law, administrative law, and litigation. Shannon is trained in collaborative family practice and has a background in nursing, graduating first with a degree in Nursing from St. Francis Xavier before going on to Dalhousie to study Law.

She has extensive training and experience in alternative dispute resolution and holds certificates in interest-based negotiation and mediation. Shannon is a member of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals and Collaborative Practice Prince Edward Island.

Shannon Farrell is an experienced litigator and routinely appears at various levels of the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island, as well as before various other regulatory boards and tribunals. She is active and committed to her profession and is a member of the Canadian Defence Lawyers Association.