EMMA FUGATE

Emma became involved with the filmmaking community through her accounting business, (<https://www.eaccountingservices.ca/>) and working with independent producer Brian Sharp (also her partner in <https://onset.film/>). After taking a Production Accounting 101 course with John Gaskin (2011) she became interested in working in the industry, initially in accounting and subsequently as a producer/writer/director. She also volunteers with FilmPEI (President Oct 2017-2019), Charlottetown Film Society (Treasurer and founding board member since 2012) and WIFT-AT (Treasurer & board member 2015-2018) and has attended many industry events (Hotdocs, PrimeTime, Women Making Waves, FIN, Produced By LA) developing an extensive network of industry mentors and contacts. Emma has produced three short films since March 2019 and has several projects currently in development - a short documentary, documentary series and musical feature film.
