JEREMY LARTER

A graduate of Sheridan's post graduate Advanced Television and Film program, Jeremy Larter is a creator, writer, director, producer, actor and editor who has created award-winning shorts, web series, documentaries and feature films. He has over 10 years of experience creating content specifically for the web. His web series credits include the autobiographical Profile PEI, the Vimeo Awards shortlisted Ponderings, the foul-mouthed and popular sport series Leafs Beefs, and two seasons of the IPF funded, Canadian Comedy award winning series Just Passing Through.

John Doyle, TV critic for the The Globe and Mail, ranked Just Passing Through #6 on hit Top 10 Canadian TV list of 2013 - the first time a web series had ever made a top TV list in Canada. He also named co-creators Jeremy Larter, Geoff Read & Jason Larter runner ups for 'TV Artist of the Year' behind Vince Gilligan of Breaking Bad. The two seasons of Just Passing Through have over 1.5 million views on Youtube, totalling over 20 million minutes watched. On social media his work has amassed a large following, with over 35,000 JPT fans on Facebook and over 3 million video views.

Jeremy was also behind two successful Kickstarter campaigns - one for Season 2 of Just Passing Through that raised over $56,000, and another for the spin-off feature film Pogey Beach that raised over $55,000. Pogey Beach went on to receive additional funding from Telefilm Canada, and premiered at FIN: The Atlantic International Film Festival in September 2018. It has since found North American distribution through the Toronto based distributor D Films, and is now available on iTunes, Eastlink & Shaw.

His work has been profiled in Fast Company, The Toronto Star, The Guardian UK, CBC Q, CTV's Etalk, The Ottawa Citizen, The Globe and Mail, The Maritime Edit & The Canadian Press.
