JOSCELYNNE BORDEAUX

Joscelynne Bordeaux began her professional acting career at the Confederation Centre's Children's Theatre which then took her to theatrical stages in London, England, Channel Islands, USA and back to PEI where she continued performing on stage and in radio, television and film. In between acting gigs Joscelynne developed a successful solo video-taping business taping musicians, orchestras, singers, art gallery openings, depositions, lectures, medical videos, as well as short documentaries.

On PEI she directed individual videos for the "I Have A Story Program with the PEI Senior Citizen's Federation" as well as completed two short films "The Suit" and "Spirit of Open Mic".

Her most recent short film "A City Under the Ground" (commissioned by Charlottetown's Old Protestant Burial Ground Board of Directors) was first screened at Heritage Awards, Charlottetown City Hall February 18th, 2020 and then again at the PEI Pop-Up film festival February 19, 2020.
