MONICA LACEY

Monica Lacey is a multidisciplinary artist living in Charlottetown, P.E.I.

She studied Textiles and Photography at the New Brunswick College of Craft and Design and has received several awards and grants for excellence in her work. Monica grew up working on set with her filmmaker father, and has turned her focus to lens-based art in recent years. In addition to working as an Assistant Director and Art Director on short films, she frequently collaborates with her husband/in-house composer Devon Ross, on experimental video projects.
